

PRESS RELEASE

PRESIDENT OF WESDOME ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT

Toronto, Ontario – March 27, 2007 – Wesdome Gold Mines Ltd. (“Wesdome”) today announced that Paul Cregheur has decided to retire as President of Wesdome, effective May 1, 2007.

Mr. Cregheur has been with Wesdome since 2000 (formerly River Gold Mines Ltd.). Resident in Amos, Quebec, Mr. Cregheur currently oversees the Corporation’s operations and was instrumental in the acquisition of the Kiena Complex in Val d’Or, Quebec in 2003 and its subsequent restart in 2006.

Wesdome Chairman, Rolly Uloth, thanked Mr. Cregheur for his contribution to the growth of the Corporation. “Over the course of his 45 year career, Paul has a successful record of finding and developing mining projects in Canada, the USA and overseas. Under his guidance, Wesdome has become a leading junior gold miner in the development of Wesdome’s properties, specifically the Kiena Complex in Val d’Or and the Eagle River mine in Wawa, Ontario. We wish Paul well in his retirement and thank him for his guidance and vision over the last 7 years with Wesdome.”

Wesdome Gold Mines Ltd. is an established Canadian gold producer with mining operations and development projects in Wawa, Ontario and Val d’Or, Quebec. The Company has 90.5 million shares issued and trades on the TSX Exchange under the symbol “WDO”.
