

WESDOME GOLD MINES LTD.
POSITION DESCRIPTION FOR AN INDIVIDUAL DIRECTOR

ACCOUNTABILITY

Each director of Wesdome Gold Mines Ltd. (the “Company”) is responsible, along with the other directors, for the duties and responsibilities set out in the board mandate and relevant committee mandates. In addition to those responsibilities, the Board has set out the following expectations and duties for an individual director.

INTEGRITY AND ACCOUNTABILITY

- a. As a member of the Board, each director will fulfill the legal requirements and obligations of a director, which includes a demonstrating a comprehensive understanding of the statutory and fiduciary roles and ensuring the best overall interests of the Company are paramount.
- b. Directors must demonstrate high ethical standards, integrity and professionalism in their personal and professional dealings and be willing to act on, and remain accountable for their boardroom decisions.
- c. Directors must adhere to the Company’s Code of Business Conduct and Ethics or obtain waivers from the Board in advance of any departure from the Code.

INDEPENDENCE

Each Director shall:

- a. Demonstrate independence from management
- b. Maintain his or her independence as defined in the National Policy 58-201 and shall report to the Board in a timely manner with full details of any changes or circumstances that may compromise his or her independence.

INFORMED JUDGMENT

- a. The Director’s ability to provide wise, thoughtful counsel on a broad range of issues ranks high among the qualities required. Directors must develop a depth of knowledge about the Company’s business in order to understand and question the assumptions upon which the strategic and business plans are based, and to form an independent judgment as to the probability that such plans can be achieved.
- b. Directors must be able to apply good sense and sound judgment to help make wise decisions.

FINANCIAL LITERACY

One of the most important roles of the Board is to monitor financial performance. To do this, directors must have a basic understanding of financial statements and other key financial measures. They must know how to read financial statements, and understand the use of financial ratios and other indices for evaluating the Company’s performance. Members of the Audit Committee will need to meet a higher standard of financial literacy.

COMMUNICATION AND BOARD ACTIVITY

As a member of the Board, each director will:

- a. Act with integrity.
- b. Respect confidentiality.
- c. Use his or her ability, experience and influence constructively.
- d. Be available as a resource to management and the Board.

- f. As necessary and appropriate, communicate with the Chair and with the CEO between meetings.
- g. Demonstrate a willingness and availability for individual consultation with the Chair or CEO.
- h. Demonstrate well-developed listening, communicating and influencing skills.
- i. Approach others assertively, responsibly and supportively, and be willing to raise tough questions in a manner that encourages open discussion.
- j. Participate fully and frankly in the deliberations and discussions of the Board.
- k. Establish an effective, independent and respected presence and a collegial relationship with other directors.
- l. Focus inquiries on issues related to strategy, policy, and results rather than issues relating to the day-to-day management of the Company.
- m. Manage conflict constructively.
- n. Respect the fact that the CEO and the Chair are the spokespersons for the Company and individual directors are only involved in external communications at the request of and/or with the approval of, and in coordination with the CEO and/or the Chair.

COMMITMENT

- a. Directors must display commitment through attendance at, preparation for and participation in meetings. The target is 100% attendance. Anything less than 80%, without extenuating circumstances, may create considerable concern for the Board.
- b. Directors are nominated and elected to the Board to bring a particular skill set or representation to the Board, and with an expectation that the director will make a deep commitment to his or her duties on the Board.
- c. Directors acknowledge and agree that if a director is approached by the Board Chair regarding attendance, participation or commitment issues, the director may be asked to give his or her resignation to the Board.

COMMITTEE WORK

In order to assist Board committees in being effective and productive each director will:

- a. Become knowledgeable about the purpose and goals of each committee and participate on committees as appropriate and when asked to from time to time.
- b. Understand the process of committee work, and the role of management and staff supporting the committee.

INDUSTRY AND CORPORATE KNOWLEDGE

Recognizing that decisions can only be made by well-informed directors, each director will:

- a. Maintain their general knowledge of the Company's business and its industry.
- b. Participate in director orientation and development opportunities provided by the Company from time to time.
- c. Maintain an understanding of the regulatory, legislative, business, social and political environments within which the Company operates.
- d. Make opportunities to meet and familiarize themselves with the senior executives and high potential employees of the Company.

The Chair of each committee of the Board of Directors (each a "Committee") of Wesdome Gold Mines Ltd.
